

---

MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

Amare Global, as a global company that sells high quality dietary supplement through its network of independent distributors/business partners, takes seriously its responsibility to respect human rights. Our core philosophy is to do business ethically and in full compliance with all applicable laws including those that are aimed at preventing slavery and human trafficking in supply chains.

We assure our stakeholders that we will take steps to establish and implement governance rules to manage identifiable modern slavery risks in our operations. We also commit to incorporate modern slavery prevention standards and best practices in our contractual relations with employees, suppliers and customers.

Amare Global's Financial Year ends on December 31, 2023. We will regularly provide transparency statements in accordance with Section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Amare Global's Board of Directors has approved this statement on December 14, 2017.

Amare Global Europe AB

By:

Martin Groppe
Board Member

Emil Edvard Eriksson
Managing Director